Un HAPPY VACATION!

Easter marked the beginning of a two-week vacation for Toulouse students. May had a creative idea to both serve students and sew the Gospel at the same time. Together with three reinforcements from the team in Aix, we stuffed 800 vacation kits with a box of juice, a piece of chocolate, an audio cassette of the Jesus film, and a postcard advertising the new French evangelistic web site atoi2voir.com. These we gave to students in their cars as they left the campus. Most were excited to receive a free gift. Some drove around the block multiple times trying to get more. Most of all, we enjoyed putting God's truth into their hands! As a result of similar efforts all over France, the number of visits to the web site increased remarkably!

repercussions, now there is another subject we can talk about. Our goal has always been to find common ground, not focus on our differences. Yes, there is tension caused by the war that we're very sensitive to, but the need to share Christ with students in Toulouse hasn't changed!

Trois KANDERN

We spent two days during the two week break visiting Campus Crusade's Western European headquarters in Kandern Germany. This is where we hope to serve when we head back overseas. Here's a timeline to give you an idea of what's in store for the months ahead.

We'll continue our internship in the Twin Cities for about five months with the office that sent us to Toulouse. This is a natural place for us to lend a hand and stay connected with France. Then in January we'll start Crusade's rigorous training to make us "official" overseas missionaries. If our support raising and preparations go well we would return in the summer. We greatly appreciate your consistent partnership and prayers through this transition.

Deux THE FRENCH AND WAR

Several have asked for comment on how the current global situation affects our ministry in France. The subject is huge. It is an inevitable part of most conversations. We've seen a range of sentiment from activism to embarrassment. In general, the French disassociate the American public from the government. They are told that Americans aren't behind Bush. Our president is harshly scrutinized and criticized. He is widely known as a fundamental protestant Christian and they quickly connect that with our military action labeling it a religious war. So, as evangelical Americans in France we are suddenly seen in a more negative light. How does that affect our ministry? We don't see much change. Being an American in France has always had

Please pray...

- For the 19 students and staff coming to Toulouse the 26th of May.
- That we wrap up the details for our move.
- For a smooth transition to next year's team. May they receive the maximum benefit from us being here this year!

The Lord's blessings to you!
